'All the Leaves are Falling'

Primary students enjoyed playing in the fallen leaves last week.

What a wonderful start to winter – I can't believe it is finally here! With the change in weather, I look forward to seeing all students wearing their school jumpers and full school uniform.

Last Friday we held a Book Fair and Whole School Assembly, which I hear was a very enjoyable event. I have since looked at the photo presentation and am just amazed at how many different and diverse activities our students have been involved with this term. I offer my apologies for not attending, as last Friday I was attending a Principal's Induction Day in Dubbo, which I found to be a very worthwhile and informative day.

Mrs A. Noble and I attended a LAP Management Meeting at Tullibigeal Central School last Thursday. It is important for all our senior students that we are actively involved in providing a large number of HSC subjects across the five LAP schools as well as administering the program to run effectively.

This Thursday, K- 6 will be attending The Henry Lawson Recitation Day in Grenfell. We wish them well with reciting their poems in front of an audience. I have already heard a good many and they are fantastic!

Mrs Libby Noble, our student welfare officer, will be swapping her days for this week only. That means a change from her regular Tuesdays; she will be available to work with the secondary students this Thursday.

Mrs Robinson will be taking William, Sarah, Angus and Zach to the first day of the Enviro Champions Leadership Day at Lake Cowal Conservation Centre this Friday. This is the beginning of an ongoing project that the team will be developing. Well done to Mrs Noble for securing a School To Work grant that will support this initiative to involve all Years 3 – 6 students.

Next week, Ms Howard will be accompanying Theresa and Maryanne into Sydney for four days of an Aspire program called "Step Up" – introducing rural students to University. I will await their report on the week with interest!

Our PBL focus for this week is "Use Polite Language"

K-6 NEWS

HENRY LAWSON FESTIVAL CHILDREN'S COMPETITION WINNERS 2014

The students participated in the Henry Lawson Festival Children's Competition s this year. The theme was sport and K/1/2 had to do an art work and Years 3-6 a poem. These are all on display in shop windows in Grenfell over the long weekend. I am very pleased to announce that Quandialla had a significant number of awards as follows:

Kindergarten: Highly Commended – Summer Dixon

Year 2: 2nd Reuben Ryan

Year 3: 2nd Dustin Newham Highly Commended - Ellie Kessey-Francis

Year 4: 1st Billy Bridger 3rd Bonny Newham

Year 5: Commended - Jarrod Lahay

Year 6: Highly Commended - Jessie McKeown

THE HENRY LAWSON RECITATION DAY

Thank you to those parents who have returned their permission notes for this excursion and a huge thank you to the parents who have been so supportive by helping their children learn their poems. Students who opt to dress in character may come to school dressed up in character if appropriate and comfortable otherwise students must wear full school uniform. Please see the program on page 5. Parents, family and friends are encouraged to come and watch if possible. All students are travelling into Grenfell on the bus which leaves at 8.55am on Thursday morning. We cannot wait for late students as the first group starts at 9.45 am. Students are reminded that they need to bring recess and lunch. Parents may take students home after their performance or they can return to school on the bus. We will be back in time for the school buses.

WESTERN CHALLENGE DEBATING COMPETITION

The Western Challenge Debating Team had their first round debate against Forbes PS last Wednesday. Miss Howard reports that the students all debated very well, however, they lost this debate. We look forward to the next debate later in the term.

MULTICULTURAL PERSPECTIVES PUBLIC SPEAKING COMPETITION

We wish Sarah Penfold all the best as she goes off to the Multicultural Perspectives Public Speaking Competition at Bletchington PS this Thursday June 5th.
