Please Come to Our Bookfair

ISSUE 23 TERM 3 WEEK 6

Left to right: Clem, Kate and Jane are all looking forward to our 2022 Bookweek & Bookfair Celebrations.

Principal's Report:

Book Week will be celebrated on Thursday. We will begin with a short assembly and costume parade followed by a free sausage sizzle for students and visitors. At around 1:30 the Book Fair will open in the library and parents and students are welcome to browse and buy. Students can dress up as a character from a book, they can wear their costume to school if it's not too difficult to get around in.

On Friday 2nd September Bribbaree Public School have kindly invited us to join them for a BBQ and games afternoon in memory of Paulie. A note will be going home today with more details and a permission slip that needs signing.

With the exception of COVID absences, our overall attendance is beginning to pick up. Parents are making a concerted effort to get their children to school every day. As of today, a note will be sent home for parents to explain any absences without explanation. Thanks to those parents that keep in touch with the school and let us know why your child is absent.

The COVID is still lurking around our school, and we now have the fabulous Mrs Millar out. Hopefully she will make a speedy recovery and be back next week. Please keep testing your children especially if they have symptoms. Please let the school know if you need more tests.

The school had a phone call from a parent this morning informing us that their child had a tick on their head. This is not a common occurrence around this area, I'm guessing it's because of the wet conditions. Ticks don't spread like head lice but can be painful and a problem if not detected. Keep an eye on your children and pets.

RCS Grazing Clinic

Understand grass growth
Refresh the basics
Manage your time and system better

An introduction to regenerative agriculture through a practical hands-on workshop.

Make strides toward confidently implementing regenerative grazing management practices into your operation.

- ✓ Practical knowledge – Understand how to assess rest period and calculate graze period, while accurately matching stocking rate to carrying capacity. See and learn the decision making processes in the paddock. Get the latest on fencing, property layout, water design and moving stock.
- ✓ Control your grazing outcomes – through the practical application of the RCS principles, active use of our grazing chart, good use of planning tools including MaiaGrazing and functional, visionary property design for this century and careful integration of livestock into cropping systems.
- ✓ Build your knowledge – Learn how to assess rest periods, and effectively match stocking rate to carrying capacity. Create your own grazing chart and develop strategies for property planning and overall improved grazing management. Understand how to adapt to seasonal and climate variability, and monitor and record changes on farm.

The course has a complete focus on implementation. We deal with the "real life stuff" that counts when it comes to getting the most out of your land, livestock and business.

"It has been what I have needed to give me the confidence that the decision I made to go down the regenerative journey has been the right one."
— Archie Knowles, Caringbah NSW, 05/10/22

"A fantastic course that every grazer should attend. It should be built in to the school and university agricultural curriculum."
— Brianne Hastings, Yass NSW, 05/10/22

"A fantastic course for any farmer to learn sustainable and successful practices. Farming for a healthy future for animals, land and people."
— Teresa Meehan, Berrumbidgee NSW, 05/10/22
