ISSUE 14 TERM 2 WEEK 4

Forbes Small Schools Athletics Carnival

Friday, 12th May, 2023

Congratulations to all students who participated in the 2023 Carnival.

Principal's Report:

Congratulations to all the students who attended the Athletics carnival on Friday. It was a beautiful day and all students joined in.

This week is family week and tomorrow Kirsten from Home-Start Cowra, Canowindra & Weddin is bringing morning tea for all of us to enjoy. Families are invited to come along to have some morning tea with their children. Following the morning tea Kirsten and Aunty Julie are going to teach the students about Story Poles and Wiradjuri language.

During the morning Mel Cooper is coming to talk about the native birds we find in our area and how we can protect them.

Friday is Wear Blue for Dolly Day, on this day we will wear blue and think about how we can be kind to others.

Yesterday, letters were sent home for explanations on previous absences. Every time your child is absent from school an explanation must be sent to the school through a note, a phone call or an email ASAP. Please do not message Mrs Millar as there are times she's not at school or doesn't receive the message until she has gone home, and the message doesn't make it through to the teachers.

WEDDIN MOUNTAINS VISIT

Last Friday at the mountains Quandi and Caragabal went camping. They had a fire and tents, the tents were a dark green swamp colour and they had numbers on them.
We went to Ben Hall's cave and Seaton's Farm. I enjoyed Ben Hall's cave because of all the stairs you had to climb up.
I hope I can go again and sleep there.

"After Dolly left us, Kate and I could see that Dolly's story had touched people everywhere and we felt the best way to remember our beautiful girl was to start a nationwide conversation about the devastating effects of bullying."

Tick Everett

Dolly's Dream

Dolly's Dream was created by Kate and Tick Everett following the shattering loss of their 14-year-old daughter, Dolly, after ongoing bullying.

Kate and Tick's aim is to prevent other families having to walk this road and experiencing this devastation.

Dolly's Dream is committed to changing the culture of bullying by increasing understanding of the impact of bullying, anxiety, depression and youth suicide – and by providing support to parents.

Dolly's Dream

Support Line

Support from a trained counsellor isn't cheap, and it's not always accessible, which is why we've partnered with Kids Helpline to offer free mental health support.

You don't need a referral, and the line is open to anyone who needs support.

Call 0488 881 033, anytime, for any reason.

Parent Hub

Many parents feel teaching their kids about online safety is important, but they don't quite know how to go about it. That's why we're here.

To help make life a little easier, we've done the research for you and pulled together the most trusted information about online safety and bullying.

Our articles, tips, links and videos will help you have those talks around online safety, bullying, choosing kindness, gaming, tech use and more.

Our workshops

Our online safety and anti-bullying workshops can be tailored to students, parents, teachers as well as the general community.

We know that everyone's level of knowledge of the online world is different, and that's why we adapt our workshops to suit the audience.

Designed by leading experts and delivered by one of our teacher-trained facilitators, our workshops are interactive and engaging, without fear of judgement.

Visit dollysdream.org.au for our list of workshops.

How you can support us

Our Dolly's Dream community is truly special. From individual donors to corporate partners to groups, fundraising for Dolly's Dream is a great way to directly impact the lives of those affected by bullying.

There are so many ways you can help! The incredible support from our community enables the development of vital bullying prevention and online safety programs for kids, families, schools and communities across Australia.
