YEAR 6 - 2024

We love our new shirts!

Relieving Principal's Report:

Home Reading

Miss Bradley and staff have been very pleased to see students reading every night and completing their Home Reading Journals. Well done to Cooper, Luke, Heidi and Clem who have been reading consistently. And a special congratulations to Luke who has reached 100 nights of reading! Keep up the great work!

School Spectacular

Congratulations to Mrs Dixon and our wonderful School Spectacular choir for being accepted into the combined choir. Tickets to the shows are on sale through Ticketek. Any families interested in attending should get in quick as shows tend to sell out. Details of the event are still being organised but we anticipate an approximate cost of around $100 for School Spec registration, $100 meal allowance and $200 towards accommodation.

Young Small Schools Debating

Our debate team is off to Murringo Public School tomorrow with Bribbaree Public School to participate in the Young Small School debating day. We have been practicing and preparing for the last few weeks and are excited to try something new and challenging. Thanks to Darcy and Mrs Anderson for inviting us and transporting our kids. Good luck and enjoy your day.

Assembly + Spelling Bee

We will be having our end of term assembly on Tuesday July 2 (Week 10) at 2.15pm. We will be combining this with the Premier's Spelling Bee - with our Junior and Senior winners going on to represent our school at the regional level. Regional spelling bees will be conducted online during school time - parents are welcome to watch. Make sure you're all practicing your list words for Tuesday!

Forbes Small Schools Athletics Carnival

Just a reminder that the Forbes Small Schools Athletics Carnival is next Wednesday July 3. Students are required to travel via private transport. We will provide students with a Quandialla shirt on the day and white crew socks, but ask that students have blue shorts for marching. We will also need a couple of parents to round out our parent teacher relay - so start stretching now.

Kind regards,
Brady Pudya
